

all day and to-night a large crowd has stood for hours in front of the jail. Two committees were sent in and looked the jail through and still the crowd was not satisfied that the negro was not in there. Henry Greenleaf, whose room the woman was found, was then sent for and inspected the jail. There have naturally been many rumors of the capture of the brute, but the authorities deny that the man has been taken.

SEARCH FOR GUILTY ONE.
Two drivers of delivery wagons who left packages at the home during the morning, were examined but made it plain that they were innocent. The police are sending postal cards to the coal fields, describing the property stolen and every effort is being made to find the guilty party. The razor with which Mrs. Shields' throat was cut was owned by Mr. Greenleaf, which shows that the man first knocked her in the head on the lower floor, stunned her, carried her up to the room, outwitted her, then cut her throat and thinking she was dead, attempted to hide the body in a closet.

The shields is a daughter of E. Hilberger, the jeweler, and is one of Roanoke's most popular young matrons.
RESTRAIN THE CROWD.
The crowd about the Shields house became so large and troublesome that ropes were stretched to-night. The members of the Roanoke Light Infantry and the Blues have been notified to be in readiness to respond to the military alarm in case the negro should be captured.

SITUATION HERE.
Acting Governor Willard Ready to Uphold the Law.

The awful crime committed at Roanoke yesterday afternoon, threw official circles here into quite a commotion and it looked as if at one time it would be necessary to send troops to the scene, but later on Mayor Cutchins withdrew a request formerly given for aid.

Governor Montague is in Florida, where he went to attend the National Good Roads Association, but Lieutenant-Governor Willard was at the mansion last night, as acting governor and was in close touch with the situation. At that hour, everything was quiet, according to a telephone conversation had by Governor Willard with Mayor Cutchins of Roanoke, the latter being to protect any man who came into the hands of the law at all hazards.

The situation was panicky at one time. Early in the morning Mayor Cutchins wired Governor Montague that troops were needed to preserve order, and that the home company, while under arms, was insufficient.

The Governor was away and Mrs. Montague with her brother-in-law, Mr. R. L. Montague and little Miss Gay, the Governor's daughter, tore open the message and seeing its importance, phoned the theatre and in a little while Governor Willard and private secretary, Ritchie, were at the mansion and in close touch with the situation.

A little later Governor Willard received an urgent message by wire for one hundred and fifty troops, saying that the local company was unable to cope with the mob. About the same time the following message was received at the mansion:

Governor A. J. Montague:
Most horrible crime committed here today by negro, criminally assaulting white lady, and then practically murdering her child with axe. Wire if you cannot offer reward for his capture.

GOVERNOR PERKINS.
Governor Willard got in speedy communication with Major Stanley W. Martin, of Danville, and put him on notice that he was subject to an emergency call. He at once communicated with Richmond officers with the view to putting them on notice, and he had about made up his mind if the call was renewed, to send several companies under an officer of his status at a late hour this morning was that Mayor Cutchins had withdrawn his call and that no trouble was expected, unless one should be arrested in Roanoke on suspicion.

Governor Montague could not be reached by phone last night, but Secretary Willard wired him the situation at Roanoke, Fla. The Governor is expected here to-morrow night.

A GOOD REPUTATION GIVEN WYATT.

V. Meredith, sat patiently in the ante-room throughout the long sitting of the board, there being nothing else to do for him to do. Of course, he confers with his client and advises him before and after the board meetings. During the afternoon he was engaged in reading the newspapers and in conversing with friends.

Monday's session should see the conclusion of the case. There are but four or five witnesses to go on, unless Major Howard brings up a fresh list on rebuttal. All the more important testimony of Mr. Wyatt—that is to say, all whose testimony is most important—have been on the stand. Those who are to follow will testify to the character of the man and to his efficient, intelligent and prompt action in specific cases of excitement, where riots or disturbances were averted by his coolness and decision. Of the witnesses left, it is understood the most important is Mr. W. Reginald Walker, who testified in part yesterday, but who will be recalled before the inquiry ends.

Known About the Cases.
The first witness put on yesterday was Mr. C. D. Bell of Lunenburg county, formerly a student at the Shenandoah Business College, of this city. Mr. Bell came from Lunenburg yesterday to testify in behalf of Mr. Wyatt and to rebut the testimony of James Buben, Jr., and others. Mr. Bell, it seems, had assisted in working up certain cases against Wyatt, and he was called to the stand in this connection. It is understood that an effort was made to connect Wyatt with several cases of violence, but that several cases were dismissed because, in the opinion of the Sunday Observance League, there was doubt of the authenticity and reliability of the evidence.

Eruptions
The only way to get rid of pimples and other eruptions is to cleanse the blood, improve the digestion, stimulate the kidneys, liver and skin. The medicine to take is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Which has cured thousands.

THE PUBLIC is not stupid—it is not necessary for us to use a brass band, or brass knuckles, to drive facts into its head—nor is it necessary for us to use a full page advertisement to get its attention.

against the saloon-keepers. Mr. Bell's testimony, it is understood, tended to show that the nature of his testimony, nor did Mr. John Garland Pollard, who followed him on the stand. It is understood that both were character witnesses.

Adjourn to Monday Night.

After this witness had retired, the board deliberated for a few moments. Major Taylor wanted to go on and get through with the case, as did Mr. Meredith, but, owing to Commissioner Manning's indisposition and the lateness of the hour, the board determined to adjourn until 8 P. M. Monday when the case will be resumed, and it is now believed.

There are several more witnesses to be heard on behalf of Officer Wyatt. Among these are Mr. D. H. Gilbert, former proprietor of the Albemarle Hotel; Mr. S. E. Bishop, shirt manufacturer at Seventh and Main Streets; Police Captain W. B. Whitlock, formerly at the First and later at the Third Station; Mr. Charles P. Hill, a stenographer, and one or two others. It is said that the testimony of at least two of these witnesses will relate to Officer Wyatt's prompt and efficient action at the time of the street railway strike when an embryo riot was nipped in the bud, as many believe.

The case has been long drawn out, but will yet last well into Monday evening, so far as can now be ascertained. Several of the witnesses to testify, then will occupy the attention of the board for a considerable time.

RICHARDSON TO RUN FOR CONGRESS NEXT FALL

Hon. David C. Richardson, Commonwealth's attorney for the city of Richmond, a boy soldier who followed Lee and quit fighting only at the surrender, admitted to a reporter for The Times-Dipatch yesterday that he was a candidate for the Democratic primary to be held in the coming summer. Mr. Richardson's prospective candidacy has been reported for some time. He has now definitely determined to make the race against Captain John Lamb, the incumbent.

Grand Masked Ball.
Korner Lodge, No. 3, Order of Hermann Bous, a well known German-American order, will give a grand masquerade ball Thursday night, February 11th, in Saenger Halle. A very competent committee has been at work for some weeks making preparations for the occasion, and no doubt its efforts will be crowned with success. It has been decided to distribute six prizes among the maskers, three to gentlemen and three to ladies. Tickets can be had from any member of the lodge or from the following committee of arrangements: Eugene Bloch, chairman; Councilman Hermann W. Stein, Dr. Moses D. Hoge, Jr., L. H. Von Boettger, Ivan Mueller, A. P. Sauer, Carl Illig, Aug. Moll, Chris. Baal, T. T. Robben, L. W. Schroeder and M. F. Richter.

YOUNG MAN SENTENCED

F. W. Wheeler Given Eight Months for Jumping Board Track, But No Damage Done. Like Accident to Freight.

MAMMOTH LOAD OF TIES

Passenger Engine Leaves the Track, But No Damage Done. Like Accident to Freight.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Jan. 30.—In the Mayor's Court this morning, F. W. Wheeler, a young man, who had been arrested in Richmond for the Petersburg authorities, was tried on the charge of jumping his board bill at the Central House and stealing an overcoat from the Imperial Hotel belonging to the proprietor. He was found guilty and sent to jail for eight months, minus the time for the garnishment and two months for defrauding the hotel. This afternoon, Wheeler, who is of prepossessing appearance, was taken to a photographer's and his picture taken. It is the belief of the authorities that he has been carrying on operations in other cities. Wheeler claims to represent a western manufacturer of billiard tables.

BIG CARGO OF TIES.
The three-masted barge Lewis Thompson left Petersburg a few days ago with 6,000 ties, and at Claremont an additional lot of 10,000 ties was loaded on board, after which the vessel departed for New York. The Hall Tie and Lumber Company were the consignors of the cargo, which is said to be the largest lot of railroad ties ever shipped from this section in one vessel.

The Petersburg Grays, Captain A. R. Moody in command, will attend services at Second Baptist Church to-morrow night, when the pastor, the Rev. Fred W. Moore, will preach a special sermon, ENGINE OFF THE TRACK.

This morning about 4 o'clock a north-bound passenger train on the Atlantic Coast Line, bound for Norfolk, ran into a south-bound freight train on the same line, met with a similar accident at Accree, near Petersburg, where little damage was done.

CLEVER QUIP AND SATIRE

many of the prominent guests present. CLEVER QUIPS.

One of the most interesting features of the evening was the appearance of "Professor Stringer Stringem, Ventriologist," with "dummies," who were named for senators, cabinet officers and others. The answers which these "dummies" made to various questions, both in English and French, for instance the "ventriologist" asked:

"Arthur Poe Gorman, is it true that Bryan has come out for you for President?"

"Bryan 'dummy'": "No: Bryan is a friend of mine."

Ventriologist: "David Bennett Hill, have you heard that Grover Cleveland may be nominated for President?"

Hill "dummy": "What would have been the result of crossing the boll weevil with the result of crossing the boll weevil with the Scotch highball?"

Medals were conferred on those who had been members ten years and in giving these to those who had pointed out personal his were indulged in, showing that there was no discrimination between guests and gridironers in the matter of roasts. Charles C. Randolph, Jr., Kaiser and Frank C. Randolph, Jr., collected the ten year medals, the latter having been the manager of the Arlington during all the years the club have been giving its dinners there, is soon to become proprietor of a new hotel in New York, and with his medal he was given a miniature hotel, called in the club which name his New York establishment.
